President’s Message
by Leslie Spoone

Dear CCLVI Colleagues:

Happy Spring!! It is hard to believe that we are only two short months away from our next CCLVI Convention in St Louis. The Union Station Hotel is a historic location where trains welcomed explorers to the new western frontier. This year's convention will feature a luncheon event, a dance social and many informative sessions on low vision issues. CCLVI was well represented at the ACB Mid Year meetings with six officers and Board members in attendance. Bill HR 2050 for coverage of low vision durable equipment by Medicare and Medicaid demonstration project was highlighted at the Legislative Seminar. Several of our members took their low vision devices on their visits on Capitol Hill and shared them with legislative aids. It really had a positive impact. The March Let's Talk Low Vision program with Dr Bill was an outstanding show on eye conditions that cause low vision and blindness. The May 15 program will feature CCLVI Leaders discussing the 2018 convention. The June 19 show will discuss clinical trials for low vision: do the risks outweigh the benefits?

The Public Relations committee is working on a new promotional flyer.

We are excited to have Enhanced Vision/VFO sponsor this issue of Vision Access.

I want to express my appreciation for being the CCLVI President for the last two years, but I will not be running for another term for President since my vision has gotten worse and I am no longer low vision, and I feel that the next President should be low vision. My Heart will always be with CCLVI. I have learned a lot from everyone on the Board, and I would like to say a big thank you to the Board and the officers.

Please know that I will be around to see CCLVI grow and

I want to take a moment to thank our wonderful CCLVI Convention Committee for a wonderful year of hard work. I especially want to thank my co-chair, Jim Jirak from Omaha, NE, for putting up with me. Thank you to Zelda Gebhard of Edgely, ND, Angelo Lanier of North Little Rock, AR, Leslie Spoone (President) of Orlando, FL, and Richard Rueda of Sacramento, CA for serving on the Convention Committee. This community works very well together and has been a true joy to serve with for everyone in CCLVI.

We are excited to once again offer a CCLVI Suite in Saint Louis. This suite will have hosts from the Board to welcome guests throughout convention beginning on Saturday afternoon and throughout the week. We are once again offering a package price for our events. We will once again have the Low Vision Vender Showcase on Sunday followed by our mixer and a dance. By popular demand, we will be hosting a luncheon on Monday, and I have kindly been asked to present at this event about low vision and law school. We will also partner with AAVL for an independence session on Monday with special guest, Danny Wayne. Our business meeting will take place on Tuesday, and on Wednesday we will have a second part to last year’s travel session, along with our open house. The Board decided to have its pre-convention Board meeting over the phone in June to allow everyone to enjoy convention to its fullest. Here is the schedule for what promises to be a wonderful convention!

Fundraising News
by Kathy Farina

Hello Everyone. The Fundraising Committee has been busy organizing some exciting events for 2018. First, a Pebble Mini hand-held magnifier, donated to us by Enhanced Vision, will be given to a lucky winner at the CCLVI business meeting at the ACB national conference and convention in St. Louis, MO in July 2018. Tickets are one for $10 and 3 for $25 and will be sold online and at the convention. To learn more, go to fundraiser.cclvi.org. CCLVI will participate in the marketplace at the ACB conference and convention before the general sessions on Sunday and Monday mornings. You might win some beautiful jewelry, gift cards and other items. Stop by our table and say hello!
We will be participating again this year in the ACB walk. We’ll lace up our shoes and walk bright and early Saturday morning in St. Louis. One half of the proceeds we raise from pledges will come back to CCLVI. We welcome walkers as well as non-walkers to cheer us on. You can be a virtual walker, walking at home and getting pledges from family and friends too. For more information or to make a pledge, go to acb.donorpages.com/2018ACBwalk.

There will be fifty/fifty raffles at CCLVI events at the conference and convention as well. I hope to see many of you at the convention. It’s always fun to see old friends and make new friends there.

Kathy Farina,
First Vice President CCLVI and Chair, Fundraising Committee

Constitutionally Speaking
by Jim Jirak

Over the past year, the CCLVI Constitution and Bylaws Committee were tasked with reviewing our governing documents. One of the projects undertaken was to ensure they were in line with current organizational practices and propose changes as deemed necessary.

As a result of our efforts, under the direction of ACB Board Member John McCann, both documents were completely modified and will be voted upon at the annual membership meeting in July in St. Louis, MO.

As both documents were completely overhauled, and to provide ample time for perusal and understanding of the changes, the Constitution and Bylaws Committee is making them available in this publication. Additionally, a series of focus calls will take place to answer any questions. The call in number is 712-432-3447. When prompted, enter the participant access code 722686. All calls are at 8:30pm eastern time and will only be limited to the articles and bylaws as specified on the date shown. The dates and topics are:
